Library of the Department of Mathematics and Physics

The Library of the Department of Mathematics and Physics has about 14.000 books (paper and electronic) and 150 journals.

The books, in this Library, are catalogued according to MSC 2020, the American Mathematical Society subjects classification.

In order to find a book of this Library, you have to consult the OPAC at the following link:

<http://unina2.on-line.it/opac/.do>

and select “Biblioteca del Dipartimento di Matematica e Fisica” in the list of the Libraries of this University.

From the catalog, you can see in real time if a book is available or not available in the Library.

If the books is available, you will ask for consulting or borrowing it.

If the book are not available, you will ask for reserve it. When the book come back available in the Library, you will receive an email that will tell you about the new availability.

For some books, you can find a link that refers to the electronic version of all or part of it.

You can access the volume using one of the PCs of the Department or connecting by proxy.

From the same catalog, you can also consult the Journals...

In some cases, if the electronic version is available, you can find a link that will direct you to the Journal website were you can download the article you need.

If the article you need are not available in our Library, you can ask the Librarian who will get the articles for you in other Italian Libraries.

For consulting or borrowing books, you need to register at the library desk. You have to fill in a form and leave a copy of your identity document and a passport-size photo. You will receive the library card.

To access the Library for studying or consulting/borrowing books, you have to sign the register, so you always need to bring the identity document with you.

In the Library, you can consult maximum 3 books at the same time. You have to return the books 15 minutes before closing time. Books for “consultation only” cannot be taken out of the library.

You can borrow maximum 2 books at the same time. Duration of the loan is 2 weeks extendable, in case you need it, for another week. The extension request, has to be done the day before or at the latest the expiration day of the loan.

If you return the books after the deadline, you will have to bring back all the books you have on loan and you'll be suspended from the library service according the following rules:

from 1 to 10 days delay : 1 month of suspension
from 11 to 20 days delay : 2 months of suspension
from 21 to 30 days delay : 3 months of suspension...

When you borrow a book, you are directly liable for possible damages.

You can't write or mark on the books. If you damage or lose a book, you have to buy a new copy.

In the Library you have to be quiet and you can't use your phone to make or to receive telephone call. Finally, in the library you can't eat or drink.

I hope that this brochure has been helpful...

I wish you a pleasant stay and good study at the Mathematics and Physics Department ...
